FOUR WINDS CASINO RESORT TO REWARD ONE LUCKY EMPLOYEE WITH A 2008 JEEP PATRIOT

An additional 25 employees will win a share of $7,000 in cash and $1,000 in gift cards

NEW BUFFALO, Mich. – September 23, 2008 – As part of its ACES Employee Fall Fest, an employee appreciation promotion recognizing quality guest service, Four Winds Casino Resort will award 25 employees with a share of $7,000 in cash and $1,000 in Four Winds gift cards. One lucky employee will take home the grand prize, a brand new 2008 Jeep® Patriot Sport 4x4, valued at $20,000. All winners will be selected through a random drawing.

The Employee Fall Fest was created by Four Winds management to recognize employees as part of the ACES program. ACES is Four Winds' unique guest service philosophy for employees that ensures 100 percent guest satisfaction. ACES requires that all employees appreciate the guest, consistently deliver quality service, exceed expectations and strive to build loyalty. During the two day event, Tuesday, September 30 and Wednesday, October 1, each employee will receive a Four Winds polo shirt. In addition to prizes, employees will be treated to festivities and a special menu in the Employee Dining Room.

"The Four Winds Casino Resort is dedicated to delivering a quality of guest service that has not been seen before in the Midwest and it is our employees who make that possible," said Matt Harkness, General Manager, Four Winds Casino Resort. "Our staff's attention to detail, unrivaled work ethic and dedication to customer service brings the Four Winds experience to life. I am very proud to be working with such a professional group of people and we are happy to be rewarding them with this unique promotion."
