Los Angeles, CA - March 22, 2022 - Today, GRAMMY Award-winning singer, songwriter, actress, and author LeAnn Rimes announced her upcoming tour, the story...so far, in support of her 25th music anniversary and forthcoming album, god's work. Spanning May 13th through July 24th, the 14-date tour (with additional dates to be announced) will be a new, more personal and intimate walk through her musical journey thus far. Ticket on-sale will begin Friday, March 25th at 10am local time at the link HERE. Four Winds Casinos ticket prices for the show range from $65 to $85, plus applicable fees, and can be purchased online beginning on Friday, March 25 at 10 a.m. Eastern.

the story.. so far will tell the story of Rimes' impressive career over the past 25 years and will give a glimpse into her new music. Throughout this past year, the singer-songwriter has been celebrating her monumental 25th anniversary as a recording artist, commemorating the release of her debut album "Blue," which made an ever-lasting impact on the music industry. Following the release, Rimes went on to win her first GRAMMY Award at age 14, making her the youngest solo artist to win to-date. To mark this moment and celebrate LeAnn's milestones along the way, the tour's setlist will feature a mix of her greatest hits, as well as new, unreleased music from her forthcoming album, god's work, expected later this year.

This week, Rimes also kicked off season three of her iHeartRadio mental health and wholeness podcast, Wholly Human, which brings her lifestyle blog, Soul of EverLe, to life and introduces fans to the teachers and wise souls that have made a positive impact on her life. Season three will feature guests including international bestselling author and motivational speaker Mel Robbins, Licensed Professional Counselor and practicing anxiety coach Nancy Jane Smith, bestselling author, speaker and fasting expert Dr. Mindy Peltz, Harvard-trained sociologist, world-renowned coach and New York Times bestselling author Martha Beck, PhD, and more.

About LeAnn Rimes: LeAnn Rimes is an international multi-platinum selling acclaimed singer and ASCAP award-winning songwriter who has sold more than 48 million units globally, won 2 Grammy® Awards; 12 Billboard Music Awards; 2 World Music Awards; 3 Academy of Country Music Awards; 2 Country Music Association Awards and one Dove Award. At 14, Rimes won "Best New Artist" making her the youngest solo artist to take home a Grammy® Award, and at 15, she became the first country artist to win "Artist of the Year" at the Billboard Music Awards.

Out of the 42 singles she has released throughout her expansive career, LeAnn's ballad "How Do I Live" holds the record as Billboard's Hot 100 all-time #1 hit by a female artist and continues to rank #4 on Billboard's "Greatest of All Time: Hot 100 Song." 15 of her multi-genre singles are top-10 hits, including "Can't Fight the Moonlight," which went #1 in 11 countries.

In 2017, the world-renowned singer released her 16th studio RCA UK/Thirty Tigers album, Remnants, which debuted at # 4 on Billboard's Independent Album Chart, peaked at #3 on iTunes® overall charts in its first week, garnered two #1 Billboard Dance hits with "Long Live Love" and "LovE is LovE is LovE," and one Top 5 hit with "Love Line." In the fall of 2018, Rimes revealed a new EP for her fans titled Re-Imagined that featured five new versions of some of her record-breaking hits, including an epic duet with the music icon Stevie Nicks. Most recently, the Grammy-winning superstar unveiled her first-ever LIVE recording as an exclusive vinyl release in honor of the 2019 Record Store Day titled "Rimes: Live at Gruene Hall" where Rimes celebrated music of all genres.

The powerhouse vocalist lit up television screens throughout the 2018 holiday season as she starred and served as an Executive Producer in Hallmark's "It's Christmas, Eve," which earned the highest TV original movie debut to-date for the channel premiering to over 4.3 million viewers. In 2020, Rimes shined the brightest and won season four of FOX's The Masked Singer, with Entertainment Weekly stating that she delivered "... the most beautiful performance in the history of The Masked Singer." Most recently, she served as the inspiration judge on the Discovery+ competition series, Meet Your Makers Showdown, which started streaming November 2021.

Passionate about using her voice to help heal the world, LeAnn was honored with the Ally of Equality Award by the Human Rights Campaign for her over 20 years of support of equal rights, the 2019 HOPE Award for Depression Advocacy, and 2009 ACM Humanitarian Award, among other recognitions. She continues to channel her voice in new ways, releasing CHANT: The Human & The Holy (EverLe Records / Thirty Tigers), which spent 5 weeks at #1 on iTunes New Age Chart, as well as her iHeartRadio mental health and wholeness podcast, Wholly Human, that brings her lifestyle blog, Soul of EverLe, to life. Going into its third season, Wholly Human reached #2 on iTunes Health & Fitness Chart and placed in the Top 35 overall for podcasts worldwide. LeAnn is now celebrating her 25th anniversary as a recording artist, commemorating the release of her debut album "Blue," and will release her next studio album, god's work, in 2022.
