NEW BUFFALO, Mich. – September 8, 2021 – The Pokagon Band of Potawatomi's Four Winds® Casinos are pleased to announce a concert by Styx, previously scheduled for July 3, 2020 at Four Winds New Buffalo's Silver Creek® Event Center, has been rescheduled for Friday, November 5, 2021 at 9 p.m. Ticket prices for the show range from $75 to $105, plus applicable fees, and can be purchased online at www.fourwindscasino.com. Hotel rooms are available on the night of the concert and can be purchased with event tickets.

The six men comprising Styx have committed to “Rockin’ the Paradise” together with audiences far and wide by averaging over 100 shows a year every year since 1999, and each one of them is committed to making the next show better than the last. Founded in Chicago in 1972, Styx has the unique distinction of being the first band in rock history to have four consecutive certified multimillion-selling albums in a row: 1977's The Grand Illusion, 1978's Pieces of Eight, 1979's Cornerstone, and 1981's Paradise Theatre.

A new era of hope, survival, and prosperity comes calling with the release of CRASH OF THE CROWN, STYX's new studio album, which was written pre-pandemic and recorded during the trying times of the pandemic. The legendary and multi-Platinum rockers—James “JY” Young (lead vocals, guitars), Tommy Shaw (lead vocals, guitars), Chuck Panozzo (bass, vocals), Todd Sucherman (drums, percussion), Lawrence Gowan (lead vocals, keyboards) and Ricky Phillips (bass, guitar, vocals)—released their 17th album June 18 on the band's label, Alpha Dog 2T/UMe, which is available on clear vinyl, black vinyl, CD, and on digital platforms. Fans can order it at Styxworld.com. The title track to CRASH OF THE CROWN is now available to stream and download on digital platforms. Fans can listen to the new song here.

STYX's holy mission for cutting CRASH OF THE CROWN was crystal-clear to its co-creator from the get-go. “Absolutely no obstacles were going to get in the way of how we approached creating this album,” singer/guitarist Tommy Shaw concludes about the herculean recording efforts of his fellow COTC makers. “And everything came out exactly the way we wanted to hear it.”

CRASH OF THE CROWN is the follow-up to STYX's 16th studio album, THE MISSION (their first in 14 years at the time, which critics called “a masterpiece”) which was released June 16, 2017 on the band's label, Alpha Dog 2T/UMe. The highly anticipated two-disc reissue of THE MISSION was released on July 27, 2018 via Alpha Dog 2T/UMe, which includes a CD of the original album, as well as a Blu-ray of the album mixed in 5.1 surround sound accompanied by stunning visualizations for each of the album's 14 songs based on the album artwork. It originally debuted on various Billboard charts, including: #6 Top Rock Albums, #11 Physical Albums, #11 Vinyl Albums, #13 Current Albums, #14 Billboard Top Albums, #16 Retail, #17 Mass Merch/Non-Traditional, #29 Digital Albums, and #45 Billboard 200 (includes catalog and streaming).

Styx draws from over four decades of barn-burning chart hits, joyous singalongs, and hard-driving deep cuts. Like a symphony that builds to a satisfying crescendo, a Styx set covers a wide range of stylistic cornerstones. From the progressively sweeping splendor that is "The Grand Illusion;" to the hunker-down fortitude of all that is the "Blue Collar Man;" from the majestic spiritual love for a special "Lady;" to the poignant rumination on the fleeting nature of fame in "Miss America;" from an individual yearning for true connection as a "Man in the Wilderness;" to a soul-deep quest to achieve what's at the heart of one's personal vision in "Crystal Ball;" from the regal reach-for-the-stars bravado of "Come Sail Away;" to the grainy all-in gallop of that rugged "Renegade" who had it made, Styx draws on an unlimited cache of ways to immerse one's mind and body in their signature sound.
